

Japan's intervention under agenda item 4

We (Japan) would like to make sure that Consultative Group has no program budget implication, the participation of the Group should be voluntary.

The Group should not be with specific member states and holding the meeting and its outcome should be shared to all member states.

I hope to see elements of my intervention in the draft report of the Committee, in particular, the point that the activities of the Group will be implemented within existing resources.